

Job Link Privacy Policy

Data Collection

We keep records of data provided by the user and his/her connected tools during the use of this application. This includes data related to the use of our application and tools as well as personal information such as names, addresses and phone numbers of technicians and equipment owners. We do not store credit card information.

Why we store it

The data stored is used to provide users access to data collected at their job sites. The data is also used by Fieldpiece to analyze trends in tool usage and user satisfaction. The data may be used by us to send product and application related information for purposes related to product development, sales, or marketing. Personal information collected will not be rented, leased or sold.

Who sees it

The data is accessible to the user who inputs that data, the account owner (which may be the same people in some cases) as well as Fieldpiece Instruments, and Automated Decisions. On occasion Fieldpiece may share stored data with other outside partners for the purposes of collaboration on development of new products or services. In such cases data will only be shared as is necessary.

Information Security

Trust is one of our core values and we make every effort to preserve it with you and your customers. Fieldpiece Instruments and Automated Decision work hard to ensure all personal information collected is protected with reliable physical, technical, and managerial security measures. Please be aware that, despite our best efforts, no security measures are perfect or impenetrable. While we strive to protect your personal information, we cannot ensure the security of the information you transmit to us. When possible we urge you to take precaution to protect your personal data. Use high strength passwords, change them often, and always use a secure browser.

Outside Content

Our website may contain links to websites operated by other companies. Some of these third-party sites may be co-branded with a Fieldpiece or Automated Decision logo, even though they are not operated or maintained by us. Although we choose our business partners carefully, we are not responsible for the privacy practices of web sites operated by third parties that are linked to our site and application. Once you have left our website, you should check the applicable privacy policy of the third party website to determine how they will handle any information they collect from you.

Product information

The information on this application or associated web sites is for informational purposes only and while we make all reasonable efforts to provide accurate information on our sites or in the application, there is no guarantee or way of accuracy. Further, we do not assume any liability for the accuracy or completeness of information presented on our sites or in the application.

Choice/Opt-Out

You may elect to “opt out” of receiving direct marketing or market research information. This means we assume you have given us your consent to collect and use your information in accordance with this Policy unless you take affirmative action to opt out at the point of collection. Opt-out is the means by which you give us, or decline to give us, your consent to use your personal information for the purposes covered by the opt-out choice. You may opt out at the point of collection when personal information is collected, or you may do so at any time by sending an email request to info@automateddecision.com (please indicate “Opt Out” in the subject line).

Children’s Privacy

Our website is a general audience site does not target and is not intended for children under the age of 13. Automated Decision does not knowingly solicit or maintain personal information pertaining to children under the age of 13.

Rights

Any rights not expressly granted are reserved.

Changes to this policy

Fieldpiece reserves the right to change our privacy policy at any time without notice. The updated policy becomes effective once it is available on our website.
